A Message from the Chair -

The Department of Music announces the establishment of Friends of Music at Mansfield, an organization to boost the presence of musical arts in the community and to provide much needed scholarship assistance to attract talented students. We hope our Cadenza readers will consider becoming one of our Friends. All Friends will receive special invitations to outstanding events and regular correspondence concerning the wide variety of activities sponsored by the department during the academic year. Be a part of this dynamic endeavor described in the following pages, and do become a member of the Friends of Music at Mansfield.

The Second Annual Scholarship Weekend is April 26-28. Be sure not to miss this opportunity to hear the outstanding performances of small and large ensembles, Kreuscher Scholarship Winners, the Music Department Faculty in their Gala Concert of music of many styles, the Concert Wind Ensemble, and an evening of Choral Music. Plan to attend now, and order your tickets as early as possible.

The administration has informally announced that all of Mansfield's teacher education programs received passing marks following our October evaluation by the National Council of Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) sent Dr. Dennis Ritz ('70, MS '74), Chairperson of the Music Department at Shippensburg University, to evaluate our music education program. Dennis found us to be passing in all respects, but in true Mansfield style, he expects us to be better than passing. Our appreciation to Dennis for his suggestions that have already prompted improvements that we could not have made by ourselves.

I am pleased to announce that I have been awarded a sabbatical leave for the 1996-97 academic year. This is my thirty-first year to be a part of Mansfield and my fifth as Chairperson of the Music Department. My introduction to Mansfield began in the seventh grade with Carlton Chaffee ('35) as my band director. He was an excellent musician and cared about all of his students. My long and exciting professional career at Mansfield has been the dream of my life. Many good things have happened in the last five years, but I am particularly proud of the new faculty who have been hired and our establishment of the music department scholarship benefit activities. During my sabbatical leave I plan to take several trips looking at programs in music education including schools in Hawaii and Guam. You may hear from me again, but this is my final message from the desk of the chair.

Aloha.

Very sincerely,

Joyce C. Wunderlich

Laura D. Lovich ('78) of Farmington has been appointed bandmaster of the First Company Governor's Foot Guard Band. In conjunction with the appointment, she has been promoted to the rank of captain. According to Major Robert A. Burnham, commandant, Laura is the first female to attain an officer's rank in the 224-year history of the Foot Guard. She was also the first woman in the Foot Guard Band to receive the George W. Tule Medal as bandsman of the year. Burnham called the promotion "a historic moment for the Foot Guard."

"Women have become an integral part of the Foot Guard tradition of promoting patriotism and Connecticut's colonial roots," said Burnham. "Lovich brings an excellent musical background and her outstanding sense of history to her leadership role, which will contribute greatly to continuing Foot Guard traditions." Laura, who teaches and directs instrumental music for the Farmington elementary schools, received her master's in music education from Western Connecticut State University. She has also completed her sixth year diploma in music education at Central Connecticut State University.

Faculty Highlights

Dr. Robert Amchin has been invited to present a workshop to the Steuben County (NY) music faculty on "Orff Schulwerk in the classroom." He will present materials on general music education and percussion techniques for the Indiana Orff-Schulwerk Association in Terre Haute, Indiana. He is also a presenter for elementary music educators of the Connecticut Music Educators State Conference in Stamford, CT, where he will share his ideas on integrated arts in the music classroom and multicultural music education. Finally, Dr. Amchin will be presenting a session on "Percussion Techniques for the General Music Classroom" at the national conference of the Music Educators National Conference in Kansas City, MO. Next fall, he will present in-services in New Mexico, New Jersey, Michigan and Albany, NY. If you are an alumni interested in having Dr. Amchin visit and present at your district, feel free to contact him.

The PA State System of Higher Education has awarded Dr. Kenneth Sarch, Professor of Strings and Director of the Orchestra a $2,494 Faculty Professional Development Grant to develop his research proposal. "Colonial Williamsburg: A Musical Odyssey."

Concert Choir Reunion A Grand Success!

Eighty alumni returned to the campus for a weekend of activities celebrating 30 years of the MU Concert Choir and culminating in a powerful and moving choral performance on Sunday, Oct. 22. Weekend highlights included the Alumni Banquet in Manser on Saturday evening with inspirational and reflective thoughts shared by Thomas Jones '77, Bill Cutter '78, and Kimber Billow '69. Alumni also attended a jazz concert on Friday followed by a reception and three rehearsals on Saturday and Sunday before joining their voices in concert on Sunday afternoon.

The alumni choir was one of the finest Dr. Dettwiler has had the privilege to conduct. Their enthusiasm, talent, and energy all combined to produce a truly inspiring concert. Letters from alumni reflect the same emotional and musical thrill. "There was great power in coming together again with people from our past." "I still can't get the music and the laughter out of my mind! What a terrific event! Whether I was singing, reminiscing, getting acquainted with old friends, or making new ones, I experienced joy that I haven't felt in a long time."

A tape of the concert is available for $9 (which includes postage). To order, mail your name, address, number of tapes, and a check payable to C.C.S.I. to Concert Choir Reunion, Butler 105, Mansfield University, Mansfield, PA 16933. Call 717-662-4721 for information.

MU Concert Choir is Europe-Bound!

The Mansfield University Concert Choir has been invited to participate in the 25th Annual "Florilege Vocal de Tours" Choir Competition in Tours, France, from May 24-27. Of the 27 choirs from around the world, the MU Concert Choir is the only choir accepted from North America! Past winners include groups from Hungary, France, Great Britain, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Poland, Italy, the Soviet Union, and the Ukraine. Peggy Dettwiler, Director of Choral Activities, says, "Whether we are a winner or a runner-up does not matter; simply the fact that we are going is an honor and a wonderful educational opportunity!" Their May 13-29 tour will include performances in Florence, Venice, Salzburg, Heidelberg, and Paris.

Music Grad Delivers Commencement Address

MU awarded approximately 185 degrees during its 131st commencement Saturday, Dec. 16, in Straughn Hall. Kimber Billow, ('70) delivered the commencement address, continuing a longtime Mansfield tradition of having only alumni speak at graduation. Kimber, who also has a master's degree in education from Ithaca College, has been director of the Concert Choir, Show Choir and Madrigal Singers at Elmira's Southside High School since 1972. During these years, the Concert and Show choirs appeared at the NYSSMA Conference and performed in Poland, Germany and Austria, and the Madrigal Singers performed in Sweden and Denmark. Billow spent the 1989-90 school year as a faculty member at Ithaca College School of Music and recently received the Elmira Star-Gazette's "Outstanding Educator Award." He is a frequent guest conductor of county and area all-state choirs, and gives lectures and demonstrations on movement in the music classroom.

In Memorial

Patricia Mundy Bottcher ('72) of Elmira, NY died June 6, 1995. She was a much-loved music teacher in the Elmira City School District for 22 years. Besides teaching and motivating students to love all kinds of music, she also organized many extra-curricular music activities and field trips to introduce her students to the world of music. She had a master's degree from Elmira College.

Mary M. Mangus ('52) of Warren, PA died April 4, 1995. She was a music teacher for the Warren County School District for 37 years. She held a master's degree in education from Penn State.

Paul S. Coolidge ('35) of Bethesda, MD died June 15, 1995. After teaching music and basketball in New York for three years, he moved to Washington, D.C., and was a sales manager for Proctor-Silex Corp. for 37 years. He was a member of the board of directors for the Electric Institute of Washington, D.C., for three years and served as president of the institute in 1972. He was an avid tennis player until age 80.

FRIENDS OF MUSIC

Mansfield University

The Music Department invites you to become a member of our donor group known as Friends of Music at Mansfield! We believe Mansfield deserves to be competitive with other institutions, private or state supported. Unlike earlier times, the state legislators have in recent years voted less and less financial support for its institutions of higher learning. Private schools, while advertising much higher tuition, give the strongest musicians large scholarships making it less probable that these students can afford to attend Mansfield. We, too, must offer scholarships to attract talented music majors. Please join our donor program and become a member of the Friends of Music at Mansfield.

Levels of Giving

$5000 and above $1000-$4999 $500-$999 $100-$499 Under $100

Donations of $100 or more include a Pass to the Scholarship Weekend, April 26-27-28, 1996, an invitation to the President's Reception following the Faculty Gala Concert and special announcements of musical activities throughout the year.
